

and forever! When you as individuals were sinking deep in sin far from the Celestial Shores, your dear Redeemer took you in, whilst you were sinking to rise no more.

Then I say, be watchful and mindful how you entertain strangers. Instruct and give advice to the best advantage according to your understanding. You will find people coming here asking how to get out to the fair grounds, find them asking different things—you should be courteous to all people, even as I have taught you; for when you came to ME, was I not courteous to you?

I have taught you in the way of wisdom. I have led you into the right path. I have shown you the way to go, that you might have victory by being kind to others, that you might be able to be and to say with David and with ME,

“Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall abide in the house of the LORD forever.”

You will not be able to say this effectively and with the spirit of sincerity unless you express it and express it accurately—having goodness and mercy and passing it on to others, that you might be the reproducers of it and also receive at the hands of others just such as you have imparted. Take these thoughts to consideration.

Let Them Be Warmed and Cared for

As I say, when people come here seeking information, give them such information as is in your power to give—any constructive information that is necessary or that would be necessary for a person under such conditions or such circumstances, and when a person comes cold or destitute at that instance, especially if they are strangers, sick or afflicted, you can let them come in or you can bring them in or let those who may be in charge of them take them in until they are warm and cared for, even as you would desire others to care for you and even as I do care for you.

I have not left the point, although it may apparently be submerged, but the words I have spoken have gone down on record mentally and spiritually and even in your notebooks. They shall be recorded and you shall remember. You must be mindful how you entertain strangers. You must be true and do not be bribers, trying to bribe in the Kingdom of GOD. Do not be aggressive, expressing the spirit of aggression individually, trying to outrun some other person to get something.

Animals in the animalistic kingdom do such things, for they have no sense of reasoning or consideration to consider others effectively as they do themselves. They do not know it is a law that that which you do to others will come back to you.

The Majority in Hearts and Lives

Now take these thoughts to consideration and remember what I have told you. I may have to stand alone, even though I have been—at least I will have to—but if I AM in the hearts and lives of the children of men universally, I AM the majority, I AM the masses, I AM all after a while anyhow. For those bodies that will not adhere to MY Message, they will go one way or the other and MY Spirit will have free access over and above their opposition, yea, over and above every conflicting tendency within them, and I will establish MY going effectively in the place of them and will cause others to be the reincarnators of their respective calling, if they will not live accordingly.

Those and many other things I will do, that you and all mankind might know GOD HIMSELF is here among you, and at this Name of Whom you say I AM, every knee must bow and every tongue must confess, over and above every sense of your feeling, over and above every opposition; for the mouth of GOD has declared it.

Now I would like to say again whilst I AM speaking along this line, paving out the way for the indwelling of MY Spirit or for the access of the expression of MY Spirit to express—as I have often said, in this and all other auditoriums and dining rooms, keep the way clear as much as possible in the entrance. Consider your fellow brother who may desire to enter, consider the one who may desire to pass out, and do not forget about everybody else; but to the reverse, try to forget about yourself. I thank you!

DO NOT TRY TO EMBARRASS OTHERS

EXCERPT FROM
FATHER DIVINE'S ANNOUNCEMENT
GIVEN WHILST AT THE CIRCLE MISSION CHURCH, HOME AND
TRAINING SCHOOL OF PENNA.
764-772 S. BROAD STREET
PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA
MAY 6, 1952 A.D.F.D.
TIME: 3:07 P. M.

PEACE, EVERYONE. I have arisen at this instance to say, there are some strangers here, some who are not accustomed of our Service. At any and at all of our Banquet Tables, we do use linen napkins and also paper napkins. The coworkers, the followers, friends and strangers and all alike are privileged to use the linen napkins on the Table, the paper napkins or any of the napkins they choose. I mention this because there are a few so-called followers around, egotistic, impractical, unprofitable and virtually good for nothing but to interfere with our guests and friends, who will try to teach others what they should or should not do.

I mention this because, as you heard read a little while ago from the pages of The New Day of nineteen hundred and forty-seven (I believe it was) that as it was with David, he said, “Thou art with me. Thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.” And also he said that I came to give you this new birth of freedom and that's what I AM giving you.

There are many too interested in others' affairs—I mean unconcerned others—even though if it would be some of those who are actually serving—MY Spirit and MY Presence supplies in the abundance of the fulness of every good and desirable blessing—and in serving the public or serving yourselves, I have given you that privilege to have access for expression in the way of service and serving, so that all might be served generously and be free to eat, to drink and to use the things that are necessary for them.

A good many of the different ones do not use the linen napkins when the paper napkins are passed around, because they may not deem it necessary to use them; but all are privileged to use them—guests, friends and strangers, coworkers and followers alike. But if they do not desire to do it, they would not be especially required to do it.

So I AM saying this because we do not want anyone to be so egotistic and so anxious to try to embarrass others because your own sins have embarrassed you with afflictions and undesirable conditions. Do not try to embarrass others with your thoughts, your words and your actions, for your sins is it that have caused your conditions to result of such as you may express.

PERMIT MY SPIRIT TO SPEAK AND EXPRESS AND ACT, AND YOU KEEP SILENT

FATHER DIVINE'S MESSAGE (In part)
AT THE BANQUET TABLE
152-160 WEST 126 STREET
NEW YORK CITY
WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY
OCTOBER 26-27, 1938 A.D.F.D.
TIME: 12:35 A. M.

I further wish to say, in reference to a remark I heard directly and indirectly a little while ago,—on this Banquet Table daily we serve the divers foods; in other words, the divers dishes of food. We serve a variety of food. Why is it we serve a variety of food? It is for the purpose of each and every individual getting something to suit his or her appetite. I do not coerce you into eating especially, some special dish I eat; neither some special dish some other individual eats; but I endeavor to supply you with the divers foods, which is to say, the variety of dishes, that you might have your choice to eat whatsoever you may desire as it is passed around to you.

If you notice carefully, the different courses of the variety of bread—we serve many courses of the variety of bread for the purpose of giving all of the diners a chance to take whatsoever he or she wishes to eat. I will not force nor coerce you into eating something you are not accustomed to eating, unless you wish to. You are privileged to eat whatsoever I serve at this Banquet Table when it is passed around to you, without comment or without criticism.

If you do not desire certain dishes or certain courses of the variety of dishes and of food, you are not obliged to do so. This is according to the Gospel. What said the Gospel, yea, the Epistle concerning the mystery?

“Where the Spirit of God is there is liberty.”

I have given you liberty and a privilege, according to the Gospel . . .

“He whom the Son sets free is free indeed.”

Therefore, in the name of the Sonship Degree, you and whatsoever is passed around to you, you are free to eat just whatsoever is set before you without comment or without criticism or without accusation.
